

April 10, 1939.

Major R. R. Jackson,
133 E. 47th St.,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Major:

I am enclosing you a copy of a letter I have just received from the Gentlemen, who is the agent for the Wilson ball. This is the ball that our League has adopted, consequently, we get very attractive prices.

I do not know whether the Wilson People would grant that same price to an individual Club, but I am writing Mr. Rose that he will hear from you direct.

Hope you are feeling well, and things are going along better out your way than they are here. Give my regards to Mrs. Jackson.

Yours very truly,

RM:CCJ